REMEMBERING 1916 LIFE ON THE WESTERN FRONT

SUPERB CENTENARY EXHIBITION IN CROYDON

Remembering 1916 – Life on the Western Front explores this pivotal year in the Great War through a unique series of individual British, French and German stories. More than 600 original artefacts, documents and photographs poignantly illustrate the world of the men and women of 1916, and their shared experiences.

Open Daily 10am – 5pm
